Officers and others who may notice errors or omissions in the List are invited to communicate direct with

THE SECRETARY of the ADMIRALTY,

(Editor of the NAVY LIST) London, S.W.1,

mentioning the page affected.

Such communications should be marked "On His Majesty's Service", and need not be stamped.

The rates of pay, regulations, &c., are contained in a separate publication, entitled "Appendix to the NAVY LIST", which appears in June and December.

The names of Temporary Officers of the Royal Navy, Royal Marines, Royal Naval Reserve, Royal Naval Volunteer Reserve, and Royal Marine Forces Volunteer Reserve who have been granted permission to retain their rank, with the right of wearing uniform on State and other occasions of ceremony, are not included in the NAVY LIST.

Officers on the Retired List are required to report their private permanent addresses and any changes therein to the appropriate authorities, as laid down in the regulations for Officers on the Retired List (see Appendix to the NAVY LIST). If they are not drawing retired pay or pension, they should also report themselves by letter annually, on or shortly after the 1st January, to the Secretary of the Admiralty, or to the Commandant-General, Royal Marines (for R.M. Officers), in order to ensure that their names are retained in the NAVY LIST.

Officers on the Emergency List, Officers of the Special Reserve of Engineer Officers, and Special Reserve, Royal Marines must similarly report their addresses annually.

Retired and Honorary Officers of the Royal Naval Reserve are required to report periodically as laid down in the R.N.R. (Officers) Regulations.

Retired and Honorary Officers of the Royal Naval Volunteer Reserve are required to report their addresses annually, on or shortly after the 1st January, to the Admiral Commanding Reserves.

Digitized by Google

It is particularly requested that all Officers whose names appear in the Retired Section of the NAVY LIST and who are not drawing retired pay or pension should leave instructions that, in the event of their death, the fact is to be reported to the appropriate authority as indicated above.

The removal of an Officer's name from the NAVY LIST in consequence of failure to report does not involve the termination of his commission or relieve him of the liability for service, if required when Retired, Emergency or Reserve Officers are called out in time of war or emergency.

Officers who succeed to peerages, baronetcies, or courtesy titles should immediately notify the same to the Secretary of the Admiralty, in order that the necessary alterations may be made in the NAVY LIST and in the Official Records of the Admiralty.

The degrees shown after Officers' names in the NAVY LIST are not necessarily a complete list of the Degrees held but, generally speaking, are confined to degrees of an honorary nature conferred specially upon an Officer and degrees which are so related to the professional duties of an Officer as to give some indication of his professional qualifications.

The NAVY LIST is compiled and published by order of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty for the convenience of the Service; but, as errors may occasionally occur, their Lordships must expressly reserve their right to determine the status of any Officer according to the actual circumstances of the case, independently of any Entry in the NAVY LIST.

By command of their Lordships,

J. G. LANG.

Gardiner's Corner

Senior Service . . . .

Senior service for the "Senior Service" is required —and what more senior service than that of Gardiner's, who, ever since the days of sail, have been the leading outfitters of naval men of every rank . . . Sail—steam—ships of oak and ships of steel—vessels driven by the wind and coal and oil . . . Power of propulsion changes—but Gardiner's remain your constant clothiers . . . Write for latest R.N. price list.

Land wear is also grand wear—made by Gardiner's . . . We are as much "at home" ashore as on the sea. All your off-ship requirements, for day or evening wear, can be most adequately met—at prices most convenient to yourself . . . Is it a lounge suit or a collar stud?—an overcoat or, say, a scarf? By and large, big and small wares alike are very advantageously available.

Officers and others who may notice errors or omissions in the List are invited to communicate direct with

THE SECRETARY of the ADMIRALTY,

(Editor of the NAVY LIST) London, S.W.1,

mentioning the page affected.

Such communications should be marked "On Her Majesty's Service", and need not be stamped.

The rates of pay, regulations, &c., are contained in a separate publication, entitled "Appendix to the NAVY LIST", which appears in June and December.

The names of Temporary Officers of the Royal Navy, Royal Marines, Royal Naval Reserve, Royal Naval Volunteer Reserve, and Royal Marine Forces Volunteer Reserve who have been granted permission to retain their rank, with the right of wearing uniform on State and other occasions of ceremony, are not included in the NAVY LIST.

Officers on the Retired List are required to report their private permanent addresses and any changes therein to the appropriate authorities, as laid down in the regulations for Officers on the Retired List (see Appendix to the NAVY LIST). If they are not drawing retired pay or pension, they should also report themselves by letter annually, on or shortly after the 1st January, to the Secretary of the Admiralty, or to the Commandant-General, Royal Marines (for R.M. Officers), in order to ensure that their names are retained in the NAVY LIST.

Officers on the Emergency List, Officers of the Special Reserve of Engineer Officers, and Special Reserve, Royal Marines must similarly report their addresses annually.

Retired and Honorary Officers of the Royal Naval Reserve are required to report periodically as laid down in the R.N.R. (Officers) Regulations.

Retired and Honorary Officers of the Royal Naval Volunteer Reserve are required to report their addresses annually, on or shortly after the 1st January, to the Admiral Commanding Reserves.

Digitized by Google

It is particularly requested that all Officers whose names appear in the Retired Section of the NAVY LIST and who are not drawing retired pay or pension should leave instructions that, in the event of their death, the fact is to be reported to the appropriate authority as indicated above.

The removal of an Officer's name from the NAVY LIST in consequence of failure to report does not involve the termination of his commission or relieve him of the liability for service, if required when Retired, Emergency or Reserve Officers are called out in time of war or emergency.

Officers who succeed to peerages, baronetcies, or courtesy titles should immediately notify the Secretary of the Admiralty, in order that the necessary alterations may be made in the NAVY LIST and in the Official Records of the Admiralty.

The degrees shown after Officers' names in the NAVY LIST are not necessarily a complete list of the Degrees held but, generally speaking, are confined to degrees of an honorary nature conferred specially upon an Officer and degrees which are so related to the professional duties of an Officer as to give some indication of his professional qualifications.

The NAVY LIST is compiled and published by order of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty for the convenience of the Service; but, as errors may occasionally occur, Their Lordships must expressly reserve their right to determine the status of any Officer according to the actual circumstances of the case, independently of any entry in the NAVY LIST.

By command of Their Lordships,

J. G. LANG.
